Three Earth-Week Recycled Art Shows!

Saratoga National Historical Park: April 20 Reception, April 21 - 29

Hudson Crossing Park: April 20 – May 31

Schuylerville Elementary School: April 27 ONLY

Stillwater and Schuylerville, NY – Celebrating Earth Week and National Park Week, three art shows, featuring over 50 pieces of exquisite indoor and outdoor art made from at least 50% recycled materials will be exhibited at Saratoga National Historical Park (Saratoga Battlefield), Hudson Crossing Park, and Schuylerville Elementary School as follows.

Saratoga NHP: (located on Routes 32 and 4 in Stillwater): An opening reception of this indoor art show will take place on Friday, April 20 from 7 - 9pm. The art will be on display daily from 9am to 5pm from April 21 – 28, closing ceremonies will take place on April 29 at 2:00.

Hudson Crossing Park: (located on Route 4, Lock 5 Island in Schuylerville): This outdoor art show at Hudson Crossing Park can be seen daily from April 20 – May 31.

Schuylerville Elementary School: An evening reception showcasing recycled art by Schuylerville students will take place on Friday, April 27 from 5pm-7:30pm at the school, in conjunction with a spaghetti dinner fundraiser.

These three unique art shows kick off Earth Week and National Park Week, featuring a variety of events between April 21 and 29. The indoor show will feature art including: Evolution of Armor, Crazy Lady Tea Party, Leaves of Grass, the Hillbilly Wedding Dress and more. The outdoor show will feature several large-scale sculptures. Awards for the Park Shows will include People's Choice (visitors' vote), Best of Show, Most Creative, Green Ribbon, and Most Humorous. Information about the Art Shows and other Earth Week events may be found on Hudson Crossing Park's website at: www.hudsoncrossingpark.org/artshow.

Photos of art pieces are available. Please email gina_johnson@nps.gov. For more info about the show, please call Marlene Bissell at 859.1462 or Phyllis Bader-Borel at 582.1254 #30#
