

Hudson Crossing Park

Sunday Afternoon in the Park

Old Saratoga Folklore

Sunday, September 25th, 2 - 4p.m.

Champlain Canal Lock 5 Island 1/2 mile north of Schuylerville off Route 4

Tall Tales:

Treeing a bear by hand in Bear Swamp

Ghost Stories:

Schuylerville's Headless Horseman

Legends:

The "Capturing" two of Burgoyne's Horses

Canal Stories:

High Water and Ice Harvesting

History:

The tale and a photo of a woman who crossed Hudson Crossing Park in 1777...some say she was a witch

Mike Bielkiewicz, a local history buff, will share a dozen or so stories from regional authors, Stone, Brandow, Vanderwerker, and Pitkin along with hearsay he has collected over many years. From the Saratoga Trail, used by Native Americans, to the introduction of the railroads the illustrated presentation will cover many of the landmark and historical crossings that the Hudson Crossing Park space has seen.

For additional information contact Mike Bielkiewicz - Bielkie@aol.com or visit www.HudsonCrossingPark.org

Hudson Crossing Park is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation. It is non-sectarian and does not discriminate against persons of any race, color, sexual orientation, gender, religion, national or ethnic origin, or those with disabilities, respecting the dignity and of all individuals.

Hudson Crossing Park

Sunday Afternoon in the Park

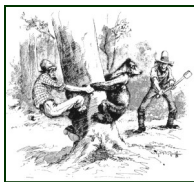

Old Saratoga Folklore

Sunday, September 25th, 2 - 4p.m.

Champlain Canal Lock 5 Island 1/2 mile north of Schuylerville off Route 4

Tall Tales:

Treeing a bear by hand in Bear Swamp

Ghost Stories:

Schuylerville's Headless Horseman

Legends:

The "Capturing" two of Burgoyne's Horses

Canal Stories:

High Water and Ice Harvesting

History:

The tale and a photo of a woman who crossed

Hudson Crossing Park in 1777...some say she was a witch

Mike Bielkiewicz, a local history buff, will share a dozen or so stories from regional authors, Stone, Brandow, Vanderwerker, and Pitkin along with hearsay he has collected over many years. From the Saratoga Trail, used by Native Americans, to the introduction of the railroads the illustrated presentation will cover many of the landmark and historical crossings that the Hudson Crossing Park space has seen.

For additional information contact Mike Bielkiewicz - Bielkie@aol.com or visit www.HudsonCrossingPark.org

Hudson Crossing Park is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation. It is non-sectarian and does not discriminate against persons of any race, color, sexual orientation, gender, religion, national or ethnic origin, or those with disabilities, respecting the dignity and of all individuals.

